

Request Access to Restricted Resources

In your searches, you may come across resources with a lock symbol in the top left corner.

Victor And Josephine Mack
Organization: Bondurant History
Collection: Oral Histories
Published in Aviaary: 01-13-2019

This indicates that the content is restricted. When you mouse over the resource, you will see this message:

Content Locked
You don't have access to this resource, please request access from the organization owner.

Request Access

Clicking "Request Access" will reveal a pop up window where you can fill in information regarding your request. Click "Submit" when you are done. You will receive an email response from the organization in due time.

Access Request

Title

Victor and Josephine Mack

Request categories

General interest

Reasons for requesting access

I'd like to learn more about Bondurant history and would like to view this video for my own enjoyment.

Close Submit

If the collection administrator for the resource has configured click-through functionality for access requests (see Edit a Collection) then the user will be asked to agree to the established conditions for access before they are able to submit their access request.

Access Request

Title

Cost of Inaction Rationale

Request categories

General interest

Reasons for requesting access

Access conditions

For educational purposes

Access conditions as set by the collection administrator will display here

User must click to agree to the access descriptions before the request is sent

I agree to the access conditions for this resource.

Close

Submit

Related articles

- Request Access to Restricted Resources
- Import Data
- Download Transcripts
- Customize Resource Table Display and Search
- Bulk Edit Resources